Important Information

The insurance in this Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) is offered by Macquarie Life Limited, exclusively to members of those eligible superannuation plans, as explained below.

Macquarie Life is not an authorised deposit-taking institution for the purposes of the Banking Act (Cth) 1959, and Macquarie Life's obligations do not represent deposits or other liabilities of Macquarie Bank Limited ABN 46 008 583 542. Macquarie Bank Limited does not guarantee or otherwise provide assurance in respect of the obligations of Macquarie Life.

Information that is not materially adverse information is subject to change from time to time and may be updated through the website, www.macquarie.com.au. The updated information can be found out at any time. A paper copy of any updated information will be given to you without charge on request. Applications will only be accepted on an application form attached to this PDS or via an electronic application available through Macquarie's online insurance platform. It is advisable to read this document before completing an application form.

About this document

This PDS has been prepared by Macquarie Life ("we") for the information of members ("you") of the following superannuation plans, called eligible superannuation plans:

- Macquarie SuperOptions Super Plan, Macquarie Super Accumulator, Macquarie Super Manager (Macquarie Superannuation). The Trustee of Macquarie Superannuation is Macquarie Investment Management Limited ABN 66 002 867 003 AFSL 237 492 (MIML);
- any other superannuation fund for which MIML acts as trustee;
- any self managed superannuation fund which invests in Macquarie Investment Manager or Macquarie Investment Accumulator, (Macquarie Wrap).

When reading this PDS, a reference to the "Trustee" is a reference to MIML, or the trustee of your self managed fund.

Life and Total and Permanent Disablement Insurance is provided under a Group Life Policy and Income Protection Insurance is provided under a Group Income Protection Policy, issued by Macquarie Life to your Trustee. Benefits are payable subject to the terms of the applicable Policy. You can review a copy of the policies by contacting your Trustee.

There are also some terms used which have a special meaning. These terms are shown in italics and are either explained in context or in the Glossary on page 10.

The importance of insurance

By choosing to invest in superannuation you have recognised the importance of saving for a financially secure future. Life insurance allows you to ensure that you and your family are looked after in the event of the unexpected.

That is why Macquarie Life has developed a range of insurance covers called Macquarie Super Protector that enables you to safeguard against the often unexpected short and long-term impacts caused by disablement or death.

This PDS covers these products:

- Life Insurance
- Total and Permanent Disablement Insurance
- Income Protection Insurance

Macquarie Super Protector is only available while you are a member of an eligible superannuation plan.

Features at a glance

The table below shows a summary of the features and benefits available through Macquarie Super Protector. For full details about each cover please refer to the product sections contained in this PDS.

Life Insurance

Paid as a lump sum, this cover can ensure that your family remains financially secure even if you die prematurely. The proceeds from Life Insurance can be used by your dependants for a variety of purposes, such as:

- clearing debts, eg. mortgage, credit cards, personal and car loans;
- investing to provide a replacement income stream;
- covering general living and lifestyle expenses;
- covering childcare expenses.

Who can apply?

If you are a member of an eligible superannuation plan, you can apply for Life Insurance between the ages of 15 and 70, and cover can continue, generally, up until the anniversary of the cover start date immediately prior to your 99th birthday, so long as you can continue to fund the premium in line with superannuation laws. Applications must be made on your behalf by the Trustee and, if your application is accepted, cover will be provided under the Policy issued to your Trustee by Macquarie Life.

What amount is payable?

With Life Insurance you apply for an amount of insurance that will be paid upon your:

- diagnosis with a terminal illness; or
- death.

The maximum amount we will pay for terminal illness is $2m inclusive of all cover held with Macquarie Life for you. If, after paying a claim for terminal illness, part of the Life Insurance insured benefit amount remains, the premium for your Super Protector policy is adjusted accordingly.

An application to increase your cover can be made at any time by completing an application form and providing any additional information requested by Macquarie Life.

Your cover can be decreased at any time:

- if MIML is your Trustee, by writing to MIML;
- otherwise, by requesting your self managed fund Trustee to write to Macquarie Life.

If you are also covered for total and permanent disablement (TPD) then, if your TPD cover is attached to your Life Insurance, your Life Insurance will reduce by the amount of any TPD benefit payable.

	Cover Type
	Life	Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD)	Income Protection
Benefit payment	Lump sum	Lump sum	Monthly
When is a benefit paid?	A benefit is paid upon your death or diagnosis with a terminal illness	A benefit is paid if you become totally and permanently disabled	A monthly benefit is paid if you are totally or partially disabled for longer than the chosen waiting period
Entry ages (current age)	15 to 70	15 to 64	15 to 60
Expiry age	Anniversary of cover prior to age 99	Anniversary of cover prior to age 99	Anniversary of cover prior to age 65
Minimum cover	$50,000	$50,000	$1,250 per month
Maximum cover	No maximum, subject to financial justification. Terminal illness is payable up to $2 million	$3,000,000 own occupation and any occupation ; $750,000 domestic duties and modified TPD	$25,000 per month

Protection against inflation

To minimise the effects of inflation on the value of your cover, we will automatically increase your insured benefit amount each year, until your cover stops, on your cover anniversary in line with increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), subject to a maximum of 10% each year. If you do not want to receive this automatic increase then the increase should be declined by you or your Trustee by writing to Macquarie Life.

For the increase not to take effect, we must receive the decline notice in the 30 days prior to the applicable anniversary.

The automatic increase will not apply if your Life Insurance sum insured is $5 million or greater.

When will we pay?

If you die or are diagnosed with a terminal illness while covered under the Policy, the insured benefit will be paid to the Trustee. The Trustee must distribute the insured benefit in accordance with the governing rules of your eligible superannuation plan and superannuation laws. It is important to note that there may be circumstances in which the Trustee will be unable to release the insured benefit at the time of claim under superannuation laws. For example, you are paid a terminal illness benefit under your insurance cover but do not meet a condition of release under superannuation laws.

When won't we pay?

We will not pay a benefit if your death was caused directly or indirectly by an intentional self-inflicted act within 13 months of:

- the cover start date;
- any increase in cover, but only in respect of that increase; and
- any reinstatement of cover.

Macquarie Life may, when lawfully entitled to do so, avoid or adjust your benefit if you have breached your duty of disclosure or have made a misrepresentation when applying for cover or an increase in cover.

When does the cover start?

Your Life Insurance starts from the cover start date shown in the certificate of insurance issued under the Policy as confirmation that your cover has been accepted by Macquarie Life. If TPD Insurance is being taken as an attachment to your Life Insurance, your Life Insurance cannot start until your application for TPD Insurance has also been accepted by Macquarie Life.

When does the cover end?

Your Life Insurance will end on the earliest of the following:

- anniversary of the cover start date immediately prior to your 99th birthday;
- your death;
- payment of the Life Insurance benefit in full;

- payment of a TPD Insurance benefit that reduces Life Insurance benefit to nil;
- cancellation of the cover by you or your Trustee;
- 30 days after you have left your eligible superannuation plan or you becoming ineligible for membership of your eligible superannuation plan under law;
- if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund, 30 days after your eligible superannuation plan ceases to invest in Macquarie Wrap;
- cancellation of the cover by Macquarie Life due to non-payment of the premium when due;
- the date the policy ends.

Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) Insurance

Also paid as a lump sum, this cover allows you to ensure that you and your family have the financial resources to make any necessary lifestyle changes associated with becoming totally and permanently disabled. As an example, you may also choose to use the proceeds to clear debts and cover medical expenses.

Who can apply?

If you are a member of an eligible superannuation plan, you can apply for TPD Insurance between the ages of 15 and 64, and it can continue until the anniversary of the cover start date immediately prior to your 99th birthday, so long as you can continue to fund the premium in line with superannuation laws. Applications must be made on your behalf by the Trustee and, if your application is accepted, cover will be provided under the Policy issued to your Trustee by Macquarie Life.

This cover may be unavailable to members with certain occupations. We suggest that you ask your adviser whether you are eligible to apply based on your occupation. Alternatively please contact us. Our contact details are shown on page 10.

Type of cover

You can apply for total and permanent disablement on the basis of the:

- any occupation or own occupation definition if the person to be insured is gainfully employed for a minimum of 20 hours per week at the time of application;
- domestic duties definition if the person to be insured is engaged in domestic duties at the time of application;
- modified TPD definition.

For some occupations, the own occupation definition may not be available.

If covered for TPD, your certificate of insurance will indicate whether you are covered on the basis of the own occupation, any occupation, or domestic duties definition. These definitions only apply if, at the time of the injury or illness for which the claim for total and permanent disablement is made, you are aged less than 65. After that time, it is only the modified TPD definition of total and permanent disablement that applies.

When you are covered on the basis of the own occupation definition of total and permanent disablement, the any occupation definition applies if, at the time of the injury or illness for which the claim for total and permanent disablement is made, you have not been gainfully employed within the preceding 6 months.

What amount is payable?

The amount we pay is the TPD Insurance sum insured at the date of your total and permanent disablement.

An application to increase your cover can be made at any time by completing an application form and providing any additional information requested by Macquarie Life.

Your cover can be decreased at any time:

- if MIML is your Trustee, by writing to MIML;
- otherwise, by requesting your self managed fund Trustee to write to Macquarie Life.

Protection against inflation

To minimise the effects of inflation on the value of your cover, we will automatically increase your insured benefit amount each year, until your cover stops, on your cover anniversary in line with increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), subject to a maximum of 10% each year. If you do not want to receive this automatic increase then the increase should be declined by you or your Trustee by writing to Macquarie Life.

For the increase not to take effect, we must receive the decline notice in the 30 days prior to the applicable anniversary.

The automatic increase will not apply if your TPD sum insured is greater than:

own occupation or any occupation	$3 million
domestic duties or modified TPD	$1 million

What are the options?

You can also structure your TPD insurance in two ways:

Attached to your Life Insurance

When attached to Life Insurance, any benefit paid for TPD will reduce your Life Insurance by the amount paid for TPD. This means that the amount of TPD Insurance cannot exceed the amount of Life Insurance.

As separate cover

When taken as separate cover, your TPD Insurance is not linked to any other cover you hold with Macquarie Life.

When will we pay?

If you satisfy the definition of total and permanent disablement which applies to you while covered under the Policy, the insured benefit will be paid to the Trustee. The Trustee must distribute the insured benefit in accordance with the governing rules of your eligible superannuation plan and superannuation laws. It is important to note that there may be circumstances in which the Trustee will be unable to release the insured benefit at the time of claim under superannuation laws. For example, you are paid an own occupation TPD benefit under your insurance cover but do not meet a condition of release under superannuation laws.

When won't we pay?

We will not pay a benefit if your TPD was caused directly or indirectly by an intentional self-inflicted act at any time after the date cover starts.

Macquarie Life may, when lawfully entitled to do so, avoid or adjust your benefit if you have breached your duty of disclosure or have made a misrepresentation when applying for cover or an increase in cover.

When does the cover start?

Your TPD Insurance starts from the cover start date shown in the certificate of insurance issued under the Policy as confirmation that your cover has been accepted by Macquarie Life. If TPD Insurance is being taken as an attachment to your Life Insurance, your TPD Insurance cannot start until your application for Life Insurance has also been accepted by Macquarie Life.

When does the cover end?

Your TPD Insurance will end on the earliest of the following:

- anniversary of the cover start date immediately prior to your 99th birthday;
- your death;
- payment of the TPD Insurance benefit in full;
- payment of the Life Insurance benefit in full;
- cancellation of the cover by you or your Trustee;
- 30 days after you have left your eligible superannuation plan or you becoming ineligible for membership of your eligible superannuation plan under law;
- if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund, 30 days after your eligible superannuation plan ceases to invest in Macquarie Wrap;
- cancellation of the cover by Macquarie Life due to non-payment of the premium when due;
- the date the policy ends.

Income Protection Insurance

Most people think that it's only the major events such as death or TPD that are likely to have significant financial implications for them or their family. But think about how you would cope if you lost your ability to earn an income even for a short period of time. Could you afford to maintain your current lifestyle, pay the bills, cover medical expenses and continue with your long-term savings objectives?

If you would struggle to make ends meet without your income, then Income Protection Insurance could be a simple solution for you.

Who can apply?

If you are a member of an eligible superannuation plan, you can apply for Income Protection Insurance between the ages of 15 and 60, and it can continue, generally, up until the anniversary of the cover start date prior to your 65th birthday. Applications must be made on your behalf by the Trustee and, if your application is accepted, cover will be provided under the Policy issued to your Trustee by Macquarie Life.

You must be working a minimum of 20 hours per week in either a permanent part-time or full-time occupation. This cover may be unavailable to members with certain occupations. We suggest that you ask your adviser whether you are eligible to apply based on your occupation. Alternatively please contact us. Our contact details are shown on page 10.

What are the options?

There are three decisions to make when considering Income Protection:

- how long you are prepared to wait if you become disabled, before you qualify for a disability benefit – this is known as the waiting period and can be either 30 or 90 days;
- the maximum period you would like the disability benefit to be paid for – this is known as the benefit period and can be 2 years, 5 years or to age 65; and
- the amount that you want to be covered for, known as the insured monthly benefit amount.

Please refer to the glossary of definitions on page 10 for details of what you can include as insurable income.

Protection against inflation

To minimise the effects of inflation on the value of your cover, we will automatically increase your insured benefit amount each year, until your cover stops, on your cover anniversary in line with increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), subject to a maximum of 10% each year. If you do not want to receive this automatic increase then the increase should be declined by you or your Trustee by writing to Macquarie Life.

For the increase not to take effect, we must receive the decline notice in the 30 days prior to the applicable anniversary.

For Income Protection Insurance the maximum monthly benefit is limited to 75% of the first $250,000, 50% of the next $150,000 and 25% of the balance of your pre-disability income, so the automatic increases explained above should be declined if your salary or income does not increase by an amount at least equal to the CPI.

The automatic increase will not apply if your insured monthly benefit amount is $25,000 or greater.

When will we pay?

Totally disabled

If you become totally disabled while covered for Income Protection cover, we will pay a monthly benefit after you have been totally disabled for longer than the waiting period. The monthly benefit will be paid one month after the waiting period has been satisfied and will continue to be paid each month in arrears until the earliest of:

- you are no longer totally disabled;
- the end of the benefit period (including any period for which the partial disability benefit was payable for that disability); or
- when the cover stops.

The monthly benefit is the lesser of:

- the insured monthly benefit amount; and
- the monthly equivalent of 75% of the first $250,000, 50% of the next $150,000 and 25% of the balance of your pre-disability income.

Partially disabled

If you are capable of returning to work in a reduced capacity you may be eligible for a partial disability benefit. A partial disability benefit is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Total disability monthly benefit} \times (\text{pre-disability income} - \text{post-disability income})}{\text{pre-disability income}}$$

We will consider you to be partially disabled if, because of injury or illness and while covered for Income Protection Insurance, you:

- are continuously disabled during the waiting period; and
- are partially disabled after the end of the waiting period, or after a period during which a benefit for total disability has been paid for the same disability.

The partial disability benefit is also payable monthly in arrears after you are no longer totally disabled, or after the end of the waiting period, whichever is later. It is only payable until the earliest of:

- when you are no longer partially disabled;
- the end of the benefit period (including any period for which the total disability benefit was payable for that disability); or
- when the cover ends.

Generally, benefits will be paid to you, or as directed by your Trustee, subject to superannuation laws.

Can the amount we pay change?

The monthly benefit that we pay may be reduced by other regular payments you receive or are eligible to receive:

- by way of workers compensation;
- by way of social security or other statutory or government payments;
- under any statutory accident compensation scheme;
- as income benefits under sick leave or any other disability, injury or illness insurance policy, excluding lump sum TPD or Trauma benefit payments.

If a lump sum (other than lump sum TPD or Trauma benefit payments) is received from any of the above sources, we will convert that lump sum to a monthly payment at the rate of 1% of the lump sum being paid per month. The monthly benefit we will pay will be reduced to ensure that, when combined with income from other sources, it does not exceed 75% of pre-disability income (100% for partial disability).

Claims indexation

When we are paying a monthly benefit we will automatically increase your pre-disability income and total disability monthly benefit on each 12 month anniversary of your claim in line with increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), subject to a maximum of 7.5%.

The automatic increase will not apply if your insured monthly benefit amount is $25,000 or greater.

Premiums whilst on claim

The premium for income protection is not payable when we are paying a total disability or partial disability benefit.

Rehabilitation expenses benefit

If you have been totally disabled or partially disabled for longer than the waiting period, and eligible to claim, then under this benefit we may pay part or all of the costs associated with your re-training or rehabilitation under a rehabilitation programme approved by us. We may reimburse up to a maximum of six times the insured monthly benefit amount.

Return to work during the waiting period

You can return to gainful employment during the waiting period for up to 7 days in total before we will restart the waiting period. The waiting period will simply be extended by the number of days you have worked, ensuring that you are not penalised for trying to return to work. If you return to gainful employment during the waiting period for more than 7 days in total, we will restart the waiting period.

Recurrent disability

If the benefit period under your Super Protector policy is to age 65, any claim for a disability arising from the same or a related cause as a previous claim within 12 months of the previous claim ending, will be treated as a continuation of the previous claim and the waiting period will be waived. If the claim is made more than 12 months after the previous claim ended it will be treated as a new claim and a new waiting period will apply.

If the benefit period under your Super Protector policy is 2 years or 5 years, any claim for a disability arising from the same or a related cause as a previous claim will be treated as a continuation of the previous claim and will only be paid for the remainder, if any, of the benefit period. If the claim is made within 6 months of the previous claim ending the waiting period will be waived. If the claim is made more than six months after the previous claim ended a new waiting period will apply.

When won't we pay?

We will not pay a benefit for your disability caused directly or indirectly by:

- an intentional self-inflicted act;
- uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth;
- war or an act of war; or
- any criminal activity.

Benefits are only payable for a period of up to 3 months whilst you are outside Australia. Upon return to Australia, benefits can continue if you qualify. We will not pay a benefit for your total disability or partial disability during any period that you are in jail.

Macquarie Life may, when lawfully entitled to do so, avoid or adjust your benefit if you have breached your duty of disclosure or have made a misrepresentation when applying for cover or an increase in cover.

When does the cover start?

Your Income Protection Insurance starts from the cover start date shown in the certificate of insurance issued under the Policy as confirmation that your cover has been accepted by Macquarie Life.

When does the cover end?

Your Income Protection Insurance will end on the earliest of the following:

- anniversary of the cover start date immediately prior to your 65th birthday;
- your death;
- cancellation of the cover by you or your Trustee;
- 30 days after you have left your eligible superannuation plan or you becoming ineligible for membership of your eligible superannuation plan under law;
- if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund, 30 days after your eligible superannuation plan ceases to invest in Macquarie Wrap;
- cancellation of the cover by Macquarie Life Limited due to non-payment of the premium when due;
- the date the policy ends.

How much does it cost?

The premium that you pay for your insurance is calculated using a combination of factors including:

- the type of cover;
- the level of cover;
- your age (premiums generally increase with age);
- your gender (life insurance premiums are generally lower for females and income protection premiums are generally lower for males);
- whether or not you smoke (premiums are higher if you smoke);
- your occupation.

In some cases your premium may be increased due to your current state of health, occupation, or hazardous pursuits or pastimes.

If you are a member of Macquarie Superannuation, your premium will be deducted from the cash component of your Macquarie Super Manager or Super Accumulator account. Premium deductions from Macquarie SuperOptions are made from the investment option with the highest value.

Otherwise, your premium will be deducted in advance from your eligible superannuation plan account.

Your premium can be paid either once a year or monthly, however, if paid monthly an additional 8% will be charged. The payment frequency can be changed at the cover anniversary by notifying us in writing at least 30 days prior to the anniversary of the cover start date.

Your adviser can provide you with an indicative quote for the cost of your cover using the premium calculator available via the online insurance platform.

Can the premium change?

The premium will change:

- each year on the anniversary of the cover start date and the premium generally increases as your age increases;
- if the cover amount is varied, either by request or because of automatic increases;
- if Macquarie Life reviews the premium rates.

Macquarie Life can change the premium rates, but only if we change them for all equivalent covers within Super Protector on a simultaneous and consistent basis. Macquarie Life will give you (if your Trustee is MIML) or your Trustee (if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed fund) at least 60 days prior written notice if there is to be an increase in the premium rates.

What happens if premiums are not paid?

If a premium payment is missed due to insufficient funds in your eligible superannuation plan account, Macquarie Life will send a notice to:

- you (if your Trustee is MIML); or
- your Trustee (if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund), advising the date on which the cover will end if the premium due is not paid. If a payment sufficient to meet the premium due is not made by that date, Macquarie Life will cancel the cover.

Macquarie Life will give at least 20 business days written notice before the cover is cancelled because of non-payment of premiums.

What will your adviser receive?

Macquarie provides two options to your adviser on how they are paid for selling this product.

	OPTION 1	OPTION 2
	Up-front and Renewal Commission	Level Commission
Year 1	Up to 65% of your first year's premium	Up to 29% of your premium each and every year
Year 2 and each year after	Up to 25% of your premium

The commission rates shown above are exclusive of GST.

This commission is paid by Macquarie Life and is not an extra amount paid from your eligible superannuation plan account. Details of the commission received by your adviser will be shown in the Statement of Advice they prepare for you.

What about tax?

Tax treatment of premiums

Macquarie recommends you consult your tax adviser as regards the tax treatment of premiums and as to the overall tax effectiveness of insurance purchased through superannuation, as there are other aspects of superannuation tax which need to be taken into account aside from the tax treatment of premiums.

The premiums for your cover are deducted from the relevant account investment balance in your eligible superannuation plan. For Life Insurance, the whole of the premium is normally an allowable deduction for your eligible superannuation plan.

For TPD Insurance, the whole of the premium may be an allowable deduction for your eligible superannuation plan, depending on the type of cover you have selected.

For Income Protection Insurance, the premiums may be an allowable deduction for your eligible superannuation plan if certain conditions are met.

Tax treatment of benefits

Because the insurance cover is available to you through an eligible superannuation plan, if an insurance benefit is payable it is paid in accordance with the tax laws that apply to payments that are made from a superannuation fund. Special tax treatment may apply to payments that are made from the fund as a result of your death, diagnosis of a terminal illness or total and permanent disablement.

If an insured benefit becomes payable, Macquarie Life pays the insurance proceeds to your Trustee, who in turn will be responsible for paying the benefit in accordance with the rules of your eligible superannuation plan and superannuation laws after allowance for any fund tax liability.

A lump sum benefit received in the event of your death is tax free when the benefit is paid to one or more of your tax dependants (either directly or via the estate). For tax purposes, a dependant includes a spouse (married or de facto), a child under the age of 18 years (including adopted children and step-children), an interdependent person or a person financially dependent on you. In other circumstances, part or all of the death benefit will not be tax free. The level of tax applicable will depend on a number of factors.

It is possible that, in some cases, part or all of the benefit that is payable in the event of your death may be paid in the form of a pension rather than a lump sum. Different tax rules apply to death benefit pension payments.

A lump sum benefit that is payable to you because you have a terminal illness may be exempt from tax if certain conditions are met.

A lump sum benefit that is paid in the event of TPD is a taxable superannuation benefit. In some cases, special tax treatment may apply to the payment.

If an income protection benefit becomes payable, typically any regular payments made by your Trustee to you will be assessable income for tax purposes and your Trustee may be required to deduct PAYG tax.

The tax information contained in this PDS is based upon our understanding of the tax laws that were current on the date of this PDS. These laws can change so you should consult your tax adviser to discuss the tax effects of Life (including terminal illness), TPD or Income Protection Insurance as part of your superannuation arrangements.

For further information about the rules applying to the payment of benefits in Macquarie Superannuation, please refer to the PDS for that fund.

How to apply

To apply for cover you need to complete an application.

We may ask for additional information or require medical tests so we can assess your application further. This will be arranged through our, or your adviser's, nominated pathology provider, who may be able to arrange for their services to be undertaken at the workplace or home of the person to be insured or at medical centres across Australia.

Your duty of disclosure

Your Trustee will be entering into a contract of life insurance with the insurer, Macquarie Life, on your behalf. Before doing so, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before your cover is extended, varied or reinstated. Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and the insurer would not have entered into the contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, the insurer may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may avoid the contract at any time.

An insurer who is entitled to avoid a contract of life insurance may, within 3 years of entering into it, elect not to avoid it but reduce the amount that you have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to the insurer.

Information about privacy

Your privacy is important to Macquarie Life. This statement explains how your personal information can be used or disclosed and provides information about your privacy rights. By completing the application form attached or the online application you agree to allow Macquarie Life to use your personal information to:

- assess and process your application for insurance;
- communicate with you about your application and any cover Macquarie Life supplies to you;
- monitor, audit, evaluate and otherwise administer any cover that you hold with Macquarie Life; and
- assess, process and investigate any claims made under any cover.

Unless you or your Trustee notify Macquarie Life or MIML otherwise, your personal information may be used to offer similar products or services which may be of interest to you.

If you do not supply Macquarie Life with the personal information requested, Macquarie Life may not be able to provide cover to you.

Health information

Macquarie Life requires information about your health to assess your application for insurance cover. The references in this Privacy Statement to personal information include sensitive information such as medical and health related details. If required to administer your cover or process any claims Macquarie Life may seek further information from any doctor personally consulted by you at any time before making an application, or at any time during your application for insurance cover or during the term of any insurance cover granted by Macquarie Life.

Disclosure of personal information

You also agree that Macquarie Life may provide access to other Macquarie group companies or our external service providers, who provide services in connection with Macquarie products and services, including a reinsurer or suppliers of administrative services (for example, mailing houses and claims investigators).

Macquarie Life may also disclose your personal information:

- if acting in good faith, we believe that the law requires or permits us to do so; or
- if you consent; or
- to any party proposing to acquire an interest in our business.

Your personal information will also be provided to your financial adviser in connection with the application for insurance and on-going management of the insurance cover, unless you instruct us not to supply your adviser with any detailed medical information received by us. You can do this by ticking the box in the declaration of the application form or by writing to us.

Your rights and responsibilities

If you do not supply all of the personal information requested, Macquarie Life may not be able to provide you with the cover for which you apply. You also have legal obligations of disclosure (explained above) under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

Under the Privacy Act 1988, you may request access to your personal information held by Macquarie Life (or MIML if MIML is your Trustee). You can contact us to make such a request or for any other reason relating to the privacy of your personal information by telephoning us on:

Macquarie's privacy statement and details on how you may access your personal information can also be found at www.macquarie.com.au

What if I change my mind?

If you decide that your insurance cover does not suit your needs, you (or your Trustee if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund) have a 14-day "Cooling-off Period" during which your cover can be cancelled in writing. If you are a member of Macquarie Superannuation, premiums paid will be reinvested in accordance with the portfolio allocation at the time the premiums were deducted. Otherwise, premiums will be re-credited to the superannuation account in your eligible superannuation plan from which they were deducted. The 14-day "Cooling-off Period" starts from the date you (if your Trustee is MIML) or your Trustee (if your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund) receive your insurance certificate confirming that your cover has started.

Interim cover

Life and TPD Insurance

Macquarie Life will provide cover for:

- death by accident (in the case of an application for Life Insurance); and/or
 - *total and permanent disablement from accidental injury (in the case of an application for TPD cover),
- from the date Macquarie Life receives your application.

* For the purposes of interim cover if, when applying for TPD Insurance, the person to be insured is:

- gainfully employed (whether the application is based on the own occupation or any occupation definition), the any occupation definition of total and permanent disablement applies;
- engaged in domestic duties, the domestic duties definition of total and permanent disablement applies;
- not gainfully employed or engaged in domestic duties, the modified TPD definition of total and permanent disablement applies.

The interim cover amount is the amount of cover applied for, to a maximum of $500,000.

Benefits are not payable if the event giving rise to the claim was directly or indirectly caused by an intentional self-inflicted act, the consumption of alcohol or drugs, or your engaging in an occupation, sport or pastime which we would not regard as acceptable for cover at our standard rates or that would not be covered under the Policy. A benefit will not be paid for death in the event of suicide or other self-inflicted act.

Income Protection Insurance

Macquarie Life will provide interim cover for total disability from accidental injury from the date Macquarie Life receives your application for Income Protection Insurance as long as you are not engaged in an occupation or participating in any sport or pastime which we would not regard as acceptable for Income Protection Insurance at our standard rates under the Policy.

The interim cover amount is the amount of cover applied for, up to a maximum of $5,000 per month. The waiting period you nominated in your application applies and benefits are payable until the earlier of your return to work or on total disability for a maximum of 6 months. The benefit is subject to adjustments and limitations on payment in the same way as the Income Protection Insurance.

When does interim cover end?

Interim cover ends when your application for cover is:

- accepted;
- declined;
- cancelled or withdrawn by you; or
- cancelled by Macquarie Life by written notice to you;

OR

- 14 days from the date we advise that cover may be available if you apply for insurance on special terms;
- 90 days from the date interim cover started; or
- a claim under this interim cover is accepted or declined, whichever occurs first.

When lawfully entitled to do so, Macquarie Life may avoid or adjust your interim cover if you have breached your duty of disclosure or have made a misrepresentation when applying for cover.

Worldwide cover

Macquarie Life provides cover 24 hours a day anywhere in the world, subject to the conditions of the cover.

Continuation of cover

If your cover ceases because:

- you leave Macquarie Superannuation or any other fund for which MIML is trustee; or
- your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund, and it ceases to invest in Macquarie Wrap, but would like to retain your valuable insurance cover, Macquarie Life may agree to transfer your cover to a stand alone personal policy. This option is not guaranteed and is subject to the availability of an equivalent stand alone product and normal assessment criteria being met. Any new policy issued would be based on our then current premium rates and policy conditions applying to the stand alone product that is available at the time, and would continue to be subject to any special conditions or loadings applying to the cover being transferred.

To make an application to Macquarie to continue cover:

- we must receive the applicable transfer form within 60 days of you ceasing to be a member of the current eligible superannuation fund;
- the cover that will be set up under the stand alone policy must not exceed the level of cover (or the waiting period or benefit period, if applicable) of the cover being transferred.

You must not:

- be receiving, or eligible to receive benefits under this Policy or any policy issued by us.

Making a claim

Macquarie Life will pay a benefit only after admission of liability. To assess the claim, Macquarie Life will require the following, in a form that is satisfactory to us:

- a properly completed claim form;
- the Certificate of Insurance;
- proof of age (unless previously provided);
- if the death benefit is being claimed, a Death Certificate;
- if a TPD benefit is being claimed, then proof of your total and permanent disability. This may include medical and other assessments we request;
- if an Income Protection benefit is being claimed, additional medical and financial information will be required to support ongoing benefit payments. We may also request medical and other assessments and financial audits.

Where we request an examination, assessment or financial audit by a person we nominate, Macquarie Life will meet the cost. Otherwise you must meet the cost of meeting our claim requirements.

Payment from the superannuation fund

If a benefit becomes payable Macquarie Life pays the insurance proceeds to your Trustee, who in turn will be responsible for paying the benefit in accordance with the rules of your eligible superannuation plan and superannuation laws after allowance for any fund tax liability.

We note that in some cases, it is possible the trustee will not be able pay the insurance proceeds out of your eligible superannuation plan until a further condition is met. We suggest you seek advice about the superannuation laws applying in this area and the rules of your eligible superannuation plan.

Who to contact

We are here to help with any questions you have about your cover. Our contact details are:

Telephone: 1800 005 057

Fax: 1800 812 175

Email: insurance@macquarie.com

Post: Macquarie Life
GPO Box 5216
Brisbane QLD 4001

Telephone calls made to you or received from you may be recorded by Macquarie. Please advise us at the commencement of any call if you do not wish the call to be recorded.

What to do if you have a complaint

Macquarie Life has procedures in place to properly consider and deal with your enquiries and complaints within 45 days after they are made. If you have a complaint you may write to the Complaints Officer of Macquarie at:

Macquarie Life
GPO Box 5216
Brisbane QLD 4001

If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction within 90 days and your Trustee is MIML, you may refer it to the Superannuation Complaints Tribunal on 1300 884 114.

If your eligible superannuation plan is a self managed superannuation fund you may refer your complaint to the Financial Industry Complaints Service on 1300 780 808.

Keeping us informed

To ensure that our records are kept up to date and correct, we request that you and your Trustee advise us:

- of a change in your or the Trustee's address or contact details;
- if you become unemployed for more than 12 months;
- if you leave Australia permanently.

Glossary of definitions

Accidental injury means bodily injury caused by an accident via violent, external and visible means after the date your application for Life Insurance is received by Macquarie Life and before interim cover stops.

Activities of daily living means

1. bathing and showering;
2. dressing and undressing;
3. eating and drinking;
4. using the toilet to maintain personal hygiene;
5. moving from place to place by walking, wheelchair or with assistance of a walking aid or getting in and out of bed, a chair or wheelchair.

Any occupation means any occupation, business or employment for which you are suited by education, training or experience.

Consumer Price Index is the weighted average of the eight Australian capital cities combined, published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics or any body which succeeds it, in respect of the 12 month period finishing on or prior to 30th September. It will be determined at 31st December each year and applied from 1st March in the following year.

Death by accident means death directly and independently of any other cause from an unforeseen and unintended accident caused by violent, external and visible means where both the accident and death occurred after the date your application for Life Insurance is received by Macquarie Life and before interim cover stops.

Disability/disabled means total disability or partial disability.

Domestic duties means the tasks performed by a person whose sole occupation is to maintain their family home. These tasks include, unassisted by another person, cleaning of the home, cooking of meals for your family, doing the family laundry, shopping for your family's food and taking care of dependent children (where applicable). Domestic duties do not include duties performed outside your home for remuneration or reward.

Eligible superannuation plan is one of the superannuation funds explained on the inside cover of this PDS.

Gainfully employed means that you are engaged in an occupation, business or employment for remuneration or reward.

Illness means a sickness or disease which becomes apparent after the later of:

- the cover start date; or
- the date we increased the insured benefit amount (other than for a CPI increase) but only in respect of that increase; or
- the date your cover was reinstated after it previously ended for any reason,

but before the cover ends, unless that illness was fully disclosed to Macquarie Life at the time of application and Macquarie Life agreed to cover it.

Injury means physical damage caused solely and directly by an accident which occurs on or after the later of:

- the cover start date; or
- the date we increased the insured benefit amount (other than for a CPI increase) but only in respect of that increase; or
- the date your cover was reinstated after it previously ended for any reason,

but before the cover ends, unless that injury was fully disclosed to Macquarie Life at the time of application and Macquarie Life agreed to cover it.

Income means the income earned through personal exertion calculated:

- after the deduction of expenses incurred in producing that income; and
- before the deduction of income tax.

It is based on the total remuneration package and includes salary, wages, packaged fringe benefits, regular commissions, regular bonuses, regular overtime payments and superannuation.

For the self-employed it also includes that share of net income the business directly generated by your personal exertion after deductions of all business expenses but before the deduction of tax.

Income does not include:

- income that you would continue to receive from your business even if you are unable to work, including any ongoing profit generated by other employees of the business; or
- other unearned income such as dividends, interest, rental income.

Insured monthly benefit amount means the monthly amount Macquarie Life has agreed to insure you for under the policy.

Loss of independent existence means the total and irreversible inability to perform at least two of the numbered activities of daily living without the assistance of another person.

Loss of limbs means the total and irreversible loss of the use of:

- two limbs; or
- sight in both eyes; or
- one limb and the sight in one eye,

where 'limb' means whole hand or whole foot.

Macquarie Superannuation means Macquarie SuperOptions Super Plan, Macquarie Super Accumulator or Macquarie Super Manager.

Macquarie Wrap means Macquarie Investment Manager or Macquarie Investment Accumulator.

Medical practitioner means a doctor who is legally qualified and properly registered other than you or your business partner or a member of your immediate family. If practising outside of Australia, the doctor must have qualifications equivalent to Australian standards.

Modified TPD means you have suffered:

- loss of limbs; or
- loss of independent existence.

Own occupation means the occupation, business or employment in which you were gainfully employed at the time of the injury or illness for which the claim for total and permanent disablement is made (or, if not gainfully employed at that time, the occupation, business or employment in which the you were most recently gainfully employed.)

Partial disability/partially disabled means that you are, solely as the result of injury or illness:

- unable to perform at full capacity one or more duty of your usual occupation necessary to produce income, as confirmed by a medical practitioner; and
- are gainfully employed but your post disability income is less than pre-disability income, and are under the regular care and following the advice of a medical practitioner.

Pre-disability income means the greater of your average monthly income:

- over the 3 year period immediately prior to the start of the waiting period applying to the claim; and
- over the 12 months immediately preceding the start of the waiting period applying to the claim.

Pre-disability income will be increased by the increase in the consumer price index after each 12 month period that you remain on claim.

Post-disability income means the average monthly income earned by you during a period of partial disability.

Terminal illness means that you are diagnosed with an illness, which reduces life expectancy to less than 12 months from the date of claim, as confirmed by a specialist physician approved by Macquarie Life.

Total and permanent disablement means that due to injury or illness:

- a) if the own occupation definition applies:
- you have been absent from work for a continuous period of at least three months; and
 - in our opinion are incapacitated to the extent that you are unlikely ever again to be able to engage in your own occupation

OR

- you meet the modified TPD definition
- b) if the any occupation definition applies:
- you have been absent from work for a continuous period of at least three months; and
 - in our opinion are incapacitated to the extent that you are unlikely ever again to be able to engage in any occupation

OR

- you meet the modified TPD definition
- c) if the domestic duties definition applies:
- you have not performed domestic duties for a continuous period of at least three months; and
 - in our opinion are incapacitated to the extent that you are unlikely ever again to be able to perform domestic duties, or engage in any occupation

OR

- you meet the modified TPD definition
- d) if the modified TPD definition applies:
- you have suffered loss of limbs; or
 - you have suffered loss of independent existence.

Totally disabled/total disability means that you are, solely as a result of injury or illness:

- unable to perform one or more of the duties of your usual occupation necessary to produce income, as confirmed by a medical practitioner; and
- not gainfully employed in any capacity, and are under the regular care and following the advice of a medical practitioner.

Usual occupation means the occupation in which you are regularly engaged, except:

- if your certificate of insurance shows that we classified your occupation as occupation class 4, after three years of claim, usual occupation means any occupation which you are reasonably capable of performing having regard to your education, training or experience;
- if you have been unemployed or on maternity, paternity or sabbatical leave for greater than 12 months at the time of disability, then the usual occupation means any occupation which you are reasonably capable of performing having regard to your education, training or experience.

Underwriting

Macquarie Life will promptly advise your adviser upon assessment of your application of any additional information needed to underwrite your application. The information about underwriting on the next page is provided as a guide only and relates to the common medical and financial underwriting requirements for cover. We may also seek additional information about any hazardous pursuits or pastimes, duties of your occupation or other information that may assist with the assessment of your application. Macquarie Life may ask you to complete a medical examination with a doctor and will cover the costs associated with that and any tests we may require. The tests and requirements vary depending on your age, occupation and the amount you have applied to be insured for; the table on the next page provides an overview. The blood tests referred to are tests for Hepatitis B and C, Multiple Biochemical Analysis (MBA) and HIV.

Your adviser is your main point of contact for your insurance so if you have any questions about your Macquarie Super Protector cover please talk to your adviser. In most circumstances, upon your written request, we can send medical examination and blood test results to a doctor nominated by you in writing.

Depending on the type of cover, we will generally require further information on you as outlined on the following page.

Financial requirements

Our underwriting philosophy is built on the principle that insurance is about wealth protection, not wealth creation. Where a client's income would be improved by an insurance claim, these are the situations where we may not allow the full benefit applied for. To enable our underwriting to best understand your client's situation and justify the benefit, you may also wish to complete a Financial Questionnaire and/or provide us with a copy of your Statement of Advice (SOA).

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of life insurance with an insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance, and if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with the duty of disclosure and the insurer would not have entered into the contract on any terms if the failure had not occurred, the insurer may void the contract within 3 years of entering into it. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may avoid the contract at any time.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses, income, and any other financial activities.

The second part of the document provides a detailed breakdown of the accounting process. It starts with the identification of the accounting period, followed by the collection and classification of data. The next steps involve the recording of transactions in the journal, the posting of these transactions to the ledger, and the preparation of trial balances to ensure that the debits equal the credits.

The third part of the document focuses on the preparation of financial statements. It outlines the steps for creating the income statement, the balance sheet, and the statement of cash flows. Each statement is explained in detail, showing how the data from the ledger is used to calculate various financial metrics and ratios.

The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of internal controls and the role of the auditor. It explains how internal controls help to prevent errors and fraud, and how an external auditor can provide an independent opinion on the accuracy of the financial statements.

The fifth and final part of the document provides a summary of the key points discussed throughout the document. It reiterates the importance of accuracy, transparency, and adherence to accounting standards in all financial reporting.
