What are the benefits?

Accidental death benefit

The policy pays a lump sum benefit on your Accidental death.

Accidental death means death as a result of sustaining bodily injury caused by accidental, violent, external and visible means where death occurs within three calendar months of the injury being sustained.

The Accidental death benefit will not be payable if your Accidental death occurs three months or more after the accident.

Are there any exclusions?

We will not pay a benefit where your Accidental death is as a result of:

- war (formally declared or not), including hostilities, civil commotion and insurrection (except death on war service)
- any form of aerial ascent or descent, or air travel of any form (other than as a fare-paying passenger)
- participation in or training for speed contests or professional sports
- suicide
- an intentional or deliberate act or omission
- misuse of alcohol and/or drugs
- participation in any criminal act.

Are there any significant risks?

There are certain risks associated with holding an Ezicover Accidental Death policy:

- if premiums are not paid when due, the policy will lapse meaning you will no longer be covered and you cannot make a claim
- your chosen level of cover may not be sufficient to provide adequate cover for your circumstances
- if you do not comply with your duty of disclosure, we may not pay your claim, pay only a portion of your claim or cancel your cover. See the section Your duty of disclosure on page 3.

What is the cost of cover?

Premiums and charges

Your premium will depend on:

- your level of cover (the higher the sum insured, the higher the premium)
- your age when cover begins (for example, premiums are generally higher for older lives). Premiums do not increase based on your age as you get older and
- your gender (premiums are generally higher for males).

Your premiums include any stamp duty charged by State governments as well as any other taxes that may be levied by State or Federal governments.

On request, a table of premium rates and calculation methods will be provided. Premium rates are not guaranteed and can change from time to time. Any change, however, will affect all policies in the same category, not just an individual policy.

Premiums are payable via credit card or direct debit from your Bank, Building Society or Credit Union account. Direct Debits from your financial institution may incur an additional fee. Any overpayment of premium will be retained by Zurich unless it exceeds $5.

If Zurich changes premium rates or introduces any new charges, or there is an increase to current charges, you will be notified 30 days prior to such change taking effect.

Should changes in the law result in changes to or additional taxes or imposts in relation to your policy, these amounts may be added to your policy.

What if I don't pay my premium?

We can cancel your policy if a premium remains unpaid for 30 days after it was due. This means you will not be covered and you cannot make a claim.

Applying for Ezicover Accidental Death

This policy is only available to Australian citizens or those holding Permanent Resident status of Australia, who are residing in Australia on a permanent basis, aged between 19 and 70, receiving this PDS (including electronically) within Australia.

You can apply for cover online or by completing and submitting the Application Form accompanying this PDS. You can apply for cover amounts between $50,000 and $500,000. Premiums can only be paid in Australian dollars.

When does cover begin?

Your cover begins when we accept your application and issue you a policy document. This sets out the terms and conditions of your cover. You will also receive a policy schedule which outlines the start date and the specific details of your particular cover. These are important documents and should be read carefully. Please keep them in a safe place because you will need them to make a claim.

Each year Zurich will provide you with a notice stating your premium.

When does cover end?

Your policy ends on the first to occur of the following:

- payment of the Accidental death benefit
- the non-payment of any premium within 30 days of its due date
- on receipt of your written notification to terminate the policy
- the policy anniversary following your 80th birthday
- your death in circumstances where the Accidental death benefit is not payable.

Can I increase my cover?

You can apply to increase your cover under this policy up to the maximum cover available at the date of the increase. The maximum level of cover currently available is $500,000.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to us before you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance.

Your duty of disclosure however does not require disclosure of a matter a) that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us; b) that is common knowledge; c) that we know or, in the ordinary course of business, ought to know; or d) where we have waived compliance.

Your duty of disclosure continues until we have informed you as to whether we accept or decline your application. This means that you must advise us of any changes to the information included in your application up until the date that we confirm that the application has been accepted or declined.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and we would not have entered into the contract if the failure had not occurred, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may avoid the contract at any time.

If we do not avoid the contract we may, within 3 years of entering into it, elect not to avoid it but to reduce the sum that you have been insured for in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had disclosed all relevant matters to us.
